

Own in Delray, Park the Boat, Let Rent Carry the Property

3125 Albatross Road, Delray Beach, FL 33444 · Duplex · two 2BR/2BA units · East Delray (Tropic Palms)

Offered at $849,000 — negotiable. Not yet on the open market · available to qualified buyers.

The opportunity. A move-in-ready Delray Beach duplex offered quietly, ahead of the open market. Live in one updated 2-bed / 2-bath unit — with a deep, gated side drive that fits an RV or large boat — and hold a long-term lease on the second unit whose rent covers the property's taxes, insurance and upkeep. Solid 1975 CBS construction, single-story, low maintenance. An ideal way to establish Florida residency (no state income tax, homestead protection) while a tenant carries the fixed costs. Minutes to Atlantic Avenue and the beach.

The tenant covers your carrying costs. The leased unit rents for about $2,900/mo — $34,800/yr. Estimated property taxes, insurance and routine maintenance run roughly $23,500/yr — so the rent covers the property's taxes, insurance and upkeep with room to spare, before your own mortgage. You live in the other unit and own a ~$849K appreciating asset.

Owner house-hack math (illustrative)

Owner-occupied financing counts the rental unit's income. With a tenant at ~$2,900/mo, your net monthly cost to live in your own Delray unit — while owning the whole property — looks like:

Down payment	Cash in	Est. loan P&I	Est. PITI*	Less tenant rent	Your net cost/mo
15% ($127,350)	$127,350	$5,046/mo	$6,671/mo	-$2,900	$3,771/mo
25% ($212,250)	$212,250	$4,452/mo	$6,077/mo	-$2,900	$3,177/mo

*Illustrative only, not a lender quote. Assumes 30-yr fixed ~7.50% (conforming) and whole-property taxes + insurance ~$1,625/mo; maintenance is additional and more than offset by the leased unit's rent. Homestead would lower taxes further.

Investor optionality.

Prefer to lease both units? Two units at ~$2,900/mo → $69,600/yr gross. At ~35% operating expenses, NOI ~$45,240 — about a 5.3% cap and a ~12.2 GRM at the $849K offering. Use it as a house-hack now, a full rental later.

Why it works.

- Established, boat- & RV-friendly Tropic Palms street
- Minutes to Atlantic Ave dining and the Delray beaches
- Updated interiors — granite, stainless, tile; single-story CBS, low upkeep
- Deep gated side drive; fenced yard; off-street parking
- Establish FL residency — no state income tax, homestead protection
